LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and about the City.

BUILDING operations are quite active out about Elm Grove.

JOSEPH RAPP and John Ninnis are each erecting new dwelling houses on North Market street.

As the outcome of the recent racket at the county infirmary Engineer George St. Myers has resigned.

Three new Wagner sleepers arrived Saturday, to be run on the Chicago trains by the C. L. & W. road.

A house driven by a man from Etna-ville ran off at Mozart park yesterday and broke the buggy all to pieces.

The repairs to the Vigilant engine are done and she was steamed up for a test Saturday with satisfactory results.

The last will and testament of Clou-entine Heil was admitted to probate Saturday afternoon, in Clerk Hook's office.

The usual large crowd visited Mozart Park yesterday. It is estimated that 3,000 were in the grounds during the afternoon.

An eight-year-old son of Jacob Kuntz, of Tenth street, fell from a second story window Saturday and was badly but not fatally hurt.

The travel on the electric cars yesterday was something enormous, especially on the loop line, where nearly every car carried from fifty to a hundred people.

The G. A. R. and Woman's Relief Corps reunion and celebration at Whiteman's Grove, North Benwood, Saturday, was eminently successful and enjoyable.

Saturday evening William Trickett, an engineer at the Wheeling electrical company's plant, caught his arm in a pulley, and it was fractured, as were also several ribs.

Religious services were held in the county jail yesterday afternoon by some good people, and the prisoners joined in singing familiar hymns with a good deal of heartiness.

BILLY MAYER's band delighted a large audience at the free concert at the public building Saturday night. "After the Ball" was added to the printed programme by request.

ROBERT LAWSON, of Eighteenth street, was held by Squire Gillespy Saturday for a hearing on two charges of assault and battery and two of using profane and abusive language.

JOSEPH GLASS and James Reilly were up before Squire Gillespy Saturday on charges proffered by one another, of using profane and abusive language, and each paid a fine of $1 and costs.

The Elm Grove railroad company is constructing a switch to the stone quarry this side of Elm Grove, on the hillside, and hereafter the product of the quarry will be delivered by rail.

OFFICER CONRAD was suspended from the police force, by Chief McNichol, Saturday evening, with the advice and consent of the committee. The reason assigned is his failure to pay his debts.

The police were yesterday asked to notify the Ohio River railroad to move a cow from Twenty-seventh street, left there Saturday night by the crew of a train which killed it as the 8 o'clock passenger train was running into the city.

A PITTSBURGH excursionist was seized by a hemorrhage of a vein in his nose yesterday afternoon on Market street opposite the postoffice, and before the bleeding could be stopped he was so enfeebled that he had to be assisted to the train.

SATURDAY evening at 7 o'clock Dr. Hill's horse slipped and fell in front of the postoffice, breaking the shaft of the buggy, but fortunately not hurting anybody. The damage was temporarily repaired and the vehicle taken to a shop for repairs.

SEVERAL of the local wheelmen went out to Cambridge on their wheels yesterday morning and returned in the afternoon, completing a century run, making them eligible to membership in the Century Road Club of America. Some of them will join.

SPEAKING of the coming bicycle races at Wheeling the INTELLIGENCER says large delegations of wheelmen are expected from Steubenville and Pittsburgh. Yes, the Steubenville boys will have served their sentence of two weeks suspension by that time and will be there.—Steubenville Gazette.

The third crew has been laid off on the C. & P. railroad within this last month on account of lack of business, and what is true of that road is true of other roads entering this city. Two trans on the C. & P. were abandoned about the first of the month and the third one last week. They will all be put back on when the mills start up.

Five cases showed up in the police court Saturday morning and three in the evening. Jack Forsythe went to the hill. John Green also went up for loitering about a boat house with John Bellville, Maggie Masters and Annie Peck. The two women went to jail, and Bellville paid $5 and costs. Mary Lavanduski, B. Lavanduski and M. Lavanduski were charged with disorder in the evening. The first two were dismissed, and last went to the hill.

Do you read the testimonials published in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla? They are thoroughly reliable and worthy your confidence.

ABOUT PEOPLE

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

R. M. Campbell, of Bethany, is a Stamm guest.

Frank K. Jackson, of Zanesville, is a McClure arrival.

C. A. Rickert, of San Francisco, Cal., is at the Windsor.

Ed. W. Reid, of Bridgeport left Saturday for New York.

Prof. Robert A. Armstrong, of West Liberty, is at the Behler.

Austin Beach, of the Pittsburgh Times, was down Saturday.

Wilson Kelly and Will Arnett went to Mt. Lake Park Saturday.

Chief of the Fire Department Healy left for Milwaukee on Saturday.

M. D. Helmick, of Glenville, is in town and stopping at the Stamm.

P. R. Bradley and P. J. Curran, of Luna, are at the Hotel Windsor.

Miss Nellie Force, of Pittsburgh, is a guest of Miss Clara Wingertor, on Main street.

F. McClain, of Rockport, and L. N. Knight, of Point Pleasant, are Behler arrivals.

Mrs. Louis Fleisner, of Washington, Pa., and son, Harry, are visiting friends in Wheeling.

G. W. Smith, J. M. Coach, C. M. Greer and H. H. Davis, of Sistersville, are at the Behler.

Dr. R. W. Hazlett, wife and daughter returned yesterday from Berkeley Springs and Bedford Springs.

Miss Mabel Brown, of Mt. Lake Park, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. N. E. Whitaker, on South Chapline street.

Misses Minnie and Kate Harris, of Toronto, Canada, are visiting Mr. Richard Donehue, the Market street jeweler.

It is reported in the Pittsburgh Dispatch that the Right Rev. Monsignor Sullivan has been appointed bishop of Wheeling, in succession of Archbishop Kain.

Mr. W. H. Brown, representing the Cleveland Stone Company, of Cleveland, Ohio, is paying a visit to his friends and customers in the city, and is stopping at the Hotel Windsor.

Prof. F. H. Crago returned yesterday from Tippecanoe, Ohio, where he went with his family last Friday to visit relatives. He left last evening for Middlebourne, where he will this week assist in conducting the Tyler county teachers' institute.

Mrs. M. D. Cabell, of Washington City, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. William Stevenson, West Maiden street. Mrs. Cabell is the daughter of Colonel Charles Ellet, a widely known civil engineer, who built the Wheeling bridge and Hempfield railroad.—Washington, Pa. Observer.

Rev. Sam Jones, wife, daughter, son and private secretary came up to the city last evening on the 10 o'clock train. They left shortly after for their home in Cardville, Georgia. Mr. Jones, who has been undergoing a severe strain for some time past, will take a long rest before resuming his labors.

For distressing oppression and fullness in the stomach take Simmons Liver Regulator.

To the Fair Wheelback.

Two more World's Fair tourists arrived in town last evening. They were H. W. Heckel and E. H. Spooner, of Allegheny. They started yesterday morning and will resume their journey this morning, and will endeavor to catch the Wheeling party that started yesterday morning.

Assaulted by Thieves.

Saturday night Thomas Conoway, bookkeeper in C. W. Kuckuck's store, at Martin's Ferry, was about to close the place, when an unknown thief entered and struck Mr. Conoway over the head, rendering him unconscious. In the struggle previous to this Mr. Conoway fired a revolver, which brought neighbors to his aid and frightened the thief away.

If you are melancholy or down with the blues you need Simmons Liver Regulator.

SOMETHING TO REMEMBER.

If you're a weak or ailing woman—that there's only one medicine so sure to help you that it can be guaranteed. It's Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. In building up overworked, feeble, delicate women, or in any "female complaint"—or weakness, if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back. It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and strengthening nerve, and a safe and certain remedy for woman's ills and ailments. It regulates and promotes all the proper functions, improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and strength.

Nothing else can be as cheap. With this you pay only for the good you get.
